"They will tell of the power of your awesome works and I will proclaim your great deeds "
Psalm 145:6

An awesome time serving Him. He has given us the opportunity to show ourselves to be His disciples. We continue to ask for prayers for the team as we keep focused on the reason we serve Him.

In His Service, Joseph Petrak & Dan Edwards

For God who created light out of darkness made
His light shine in our hearts...
2 Cor. 4:6

The team covets your prayers as we begin meeting for the pilgrims God will bring this fall. We have felt His presence as we prepare our hearts and minds for Walk #68.

Trusting in Him, Debbie Jackson & Marge Chevrier

Memories

Do you remember your weekend as a pilgrim? Many things happened that weekend and you were not even sure of how they happened or why they happened, maybe for months after your walk. We can hope that you are able to glow in your weekend even after the years have past. When you think of your own walk do you ever think of a special friend that may need the same experience? We are talking about your special friend that might need to know Jesus just a bit more. Can we ever know Jesus to much?,, I don't think so! Friends, we are talking about showing a friend about the pleasure of walking with Jesus on a daily basis. During the closing at the 25 reunion we heard people talk about being in church all their lives but yet met the Risen Savior on their walk. How can we call them special friends and not let them take the walk? Pastors have met the Lord on their weekends. We have walks coming up and you might still be able to get that special person on their walk with Jesus. We are commanded to: "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations." How can we be a disciple if we are not sure who Christ is? Think about it. Pray about it. Then talk to your friend about Jesus and talk to Jesus about your friend. Get the application filled out! In closing, remember your weekend and what it meant to you.

IT WAS ONLY A QUARTER

Several years ago, a preacher from out of state accepted a call to a church in Houston, Texas.

Some weeks after he arrived, he had an occasion to ride the bus. When he sat down on the bus he discovered that the bus driver had given him to much change.

As he considered what to do, he thought to himself, "you better give the money back, it would be wrong to keep it. He thought about many different things as to why he should just keep it. The bus company makes to much money anyway.

When he got up to get off the bus He paused at the door and gave the extra money back and said here you gave me to much change

The driver smiled and replied Aren't you the new preacher in town. I have been thinking about going to church somewhere to worship. I just wanted to see what you would do if I gave you to much change. I will see you Sunday.

When the preacher stepped off the bus, he literally grabbed the nearest light pole, held on and said, "Oh God, I almost sold Your Son for some extra change..."

Our lives are the only Bible some people will ever read.

Kid's Bible Lessons:

A Sunday school teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan, in which a man was beaten, robbed and left for dead. She described the situation in vivid detail so her students would catch the drama. Then, she asked the class,

'If you saw a person lying on the roadside, all wounded and bleeding, what would you do?'

A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence,

'I think I'd throw up.'
