Prayer Chain Note

We are still experiencing some email problems with the Prayer chain email list.

While we continue trying to solve the problems, we wanted to give you an update and explanation. (We also post updates on the home page of our website, www.eoee.org.)

Some members are getting "bounced" and removed from the list. To the best of our knowledge, here's what happens:

When a Prayer chain message gets sent out, their email provider (Roadrunner, Juno, Zoom, AOL, etc) sends a reply to our website saying there's a problem, and the message couldn't be delivered. After a certain number of those messages, the system thinks it cannot deliver any more email to you and so it stops trying.

In at least one case, we think the problem began when the person told their email provider to block email from one specific person. In addition to blocking email from that person, it associated their emails as having come from the Prayerchain, and reported them as spam.

(If there's someone you don't wish to hear from, please use the delete key instead! :)

If you have any questions, please contact Jeff Conley - webservant@eoee.org or 330-493-7758.
