Greetings EOEE Fourth Day!

It's time to celebrate October and the month of Walks #104!!!

Continued prayers are appreciated for our Lay Leaders, Craig and Clarissa, as they've had to persevere through a lot to get to where we are today!!

As we all prepare for these upcoming Walks, I ask that everyone begins preparing agape (general and personal agape) for the pilgrims. When available, please sign up for the prayer vigils as well. For anyone capable, I'd also ask that you set aside some time for serving meals, attending Candlelight, or attending Closing. Each of these efforts are deeply appreciated!!

Another thing to mention: There will be no gathering this month as we are celebrating our new 4th Day by serving them on these coming Walks.

When the Walks are upon us, please be diligent in watching for emails, and keep up to date on the EOEE Facebook page. Any identified needs (or updates pertaining to the Walks) will be communicated in this fashion.

Other news:

During this month's Board meeting we will be voting for the Lay Leaders for Walks 107 (Walks to be held in the Spring of 2026) and for the Community Lay Director for 2026. We ask that you pray for the candidates and the decisions that are to be made!

Finally, we do have openings for various Board Positions beginning in January 2025.

Here are the four committees that are looking for board or committee members in the new year:

Walk Committee
Post-Walk Committee

Pre-Walk Committee
Communications

Anyone interested in a role within one of these Board committees, please contact Laurie Maltempi.

May the good Lord bless you all. De Colores!!!

In His Service,
Brett Waller

LAY LEADER NEWS

Men's Walk #104 Theme Verse: Psalm 16:8 "I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken."

Emmaus Community,

Well everyone said that team formation would go quick but we never realized how quick. As we write this, we only have two meetings left as we prepare to serve on this Walk. The team continues to come together, to bond and to grow. We are blessed by a team of Men who have a servant's heart and seek to fully show Jesus to the pilgrims on the weekend. In our devotion time, we have reflected on our theme verse - I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand I will not be shaken (Psalm 16:8). We long for keeping our eyes always on Him, not just when we need him. We have also reflected on the passages of scripture around that verse where the focus is on the heart. Our hearts must be right with God to fully see him. That has been our journey, giving our hearts to God to fully serve him. What an amazing blessing.

In His service,

Craig Welsh and Chris Vaughn

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ-

We are weeks away from the walk and only three team meetings left to go. God is so amazing in all that He does. We have had our first talk preview and these women have truly met the assignment. The way that each of their personals are interthread is definitely a God thing. Two of the women had not given an Emmaus talk before yet you would have never known. Even though I know how amazing our God is, I still seem to be in awe of His works.

There have been a couple team members who have had loved one pass within the last few weeks, others who are battling some health issues, and yet we all give it to God, knowing He has the VICTORY over it all.

Never did I think God would call me to use this scripture again. I mean really, how often have you heard it? I used it when I lead an Epiphany team, so why would I think He would give me the same scripture. Now I understand Lord! We must truly understand that we maybe within the battle and have been made ready in every way, given every opportunity to prepare, and even given the sword, but the VICTORY is His! We can read our Bibles, memorizing it, yet if we do not fully turn all aspects of our life over to Him, we cannot be victorious.

Lord, I know you have each pilgrim preparing for this journey. I pray that we as Your warriors walk into this battle fully armed and ready to step in when and where you call each of us. This team has really taken my life motto to heart, "more of You, less of me, let You be all they see!" I am honored and humbled that God has chosen for me to facilitate women's walk 104.

The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but VICTORY rests with the Lord. Proverbs 21:31
